

Our Purpose:

The Indigenous School of Medicine is committed to honor, preserve, advance, and enhance the health and well-being of Indigenous peoples and their communities. Indigenous School of Medicine aims to effectively address the unique health needs and challenges faced by Indigenous peoples through culturally grounded, holistic, innovative, and community-driven medical education.

Our Vision:

Our vision is a world in which Indigenous Peoples enjoy health and well-being, where our unique cultures, traditions, and knowledge systems are valued and integrated into all aspects of medicine and wellbeing to create a healing environment and sustainable ecosystem for learning.
